

SUMMARY OF DUII DIVERSION FEES

A defendant allowed into a driving under the influence of intoxicants (DUII) diversion program will be required to pay the fees listed below.

Section 1: Fees to the Court

A. The defendant must pay the following fees to the court:

- $386 filing fee
- Court-appointed attorney fees

The court may waive all or part of these fees if it finds the defendant is indigent. The court may also allow the defendant to pay in installments over time.

Section 2: Other Fees

A. The defendant must complete an alcohol/drug diagnostic assessment.

- The cost of the assessment is $150. The defendant must pay this fee directly to the person, agency or organization conducting the assessment.
- The defendant must pay for any treatment recommended by the assessment. The cost of treatment varies. The defendant must pay treatment costs directly to the agency or organization providing the treatment. If the defendant is unable to pay, the agency or organization providing the treatment may allow payment in installments over time.

B. The court may order defendant to attend a victim impact panel and pay a participation fee. The fee may range from $5 to $50. The defendant must pay this fee directly to the panel coordinator on the day of the panel or otherwise as directed by the court or person conducting the assessment.

C. The court will order defendant to install an approved ignition interlock device in any vehicle operated by the defendant during the term of the diversion agreement when the defendant has driving privileges. The defendant must pay to the provider installing the device any costs associated with leasing, installing, and maintaining the device, unless the Department of Transportation finds that the defendant is indigent and waives all or part of these fees. The Department may also defer the costs or allow payment in installments.
