General Order
No. 95-1

FILED
95 JAN 17 AM 11:14
COOS COUNTY COURT
COQUILLE, OREGON

This matter coming before the court on its own motion;

It appearing to the court that the Curry County Justice courts have been abolished.

It further appearing to the court that when a justice court is abolished pursuant to ORS 51.130 the district court takes custody of the docket and files of the court.

It further appearing to the court that filings and actions related to these justice court files will continue.

It further appearing to the court that in order to process further filings on justice court cases, a case must be opened or backloaded to the state court's OJIN computer system.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

The Trial Court Administrator shall backload onto the OJIN system all justice court cases with outstanding warrants and process any papers or filings and schedule any hearings associated with those cases.

If requested by the judgment creditor or debtor or their representative the Trial Court Administrator shall certify and transcribe any justice court civil or small claim judgment to the circuit court as provided by ORS 52.630.

The Trial Court Administrator shall backload any DUII diversion case and process any papers or hearings when papers are filed with the court.

The Trial Court Administrator may backload other justice court cases to expedite judicial efficiency.

It is so ordered this 17th day of Jan. 1995.
