JUDGE RASMUSSEN ATTENDS THIRD ANNUAL MEETING OF AMERICAN COLLEGE OF BUSINESS COURT JUDGES Meeting held in Washington D.C.

Judge Karsten H. Rasmussen recently attended the third annual meeting of the American College of Business Court Judges (ACBCJ), held from October 24th through October 26th in Washington, D.C. The ABA Business Law Section co-sponsored the conference.

The ACBCJ invited judges from business and commercial courts across the country to the nation's capital to learn about current issues that arise in these specialized courts. The conference was an opportunity for judges to learn from the instructors and from each other about the newest legal issues that these courts face.

The conference consisted of two days of panel discussions and lectures by distinguished attorneys. The lectures covered a broad array of topics, including best practices, e-discovery, corporate law, contract issues for business courts and the development of business courts across the country.
