3. Child Support, including Cash Medical Support.

- (a) Child support as previously ordered remains in effect and unchanged.
- (b) The Judgment is modified to terminate Petitioner's Respondent's support obligation effective _____ for the child/ren: _____
(name(s) and year(s) of birth)

4. Cash Child Support.

- Is the amount presumed to be appropriate under the support guidelines.
 - Is different from the presumed appropriate amount of $ _____ because (list reasons) _____.
- (b) No cash child support is ordered in this judgment because:
 - An order, including medical support, for child support in the monthly amount of $ _____ has already been ordered in Circuit Court case number _____ in _____ County, Oregon.
 - Other reason: _____

5. Medical Support. Complete section (a) or (b) below. Also complete section (c) or (d) below.

Complete (a) or (b):

(a) Private Health Care Coverage is Appropriate and Available.

Petitioner Respondent Both Petitioner and Respondent has/have appropriate private health care coverage available for the parties' child/ren through an employer, spouse, domestic partner or other source. Petitioner Respondent Both Petitioner and Respondent is/are ordered to obtain and/or maintain this coverage throughout the period of the support obligation for the benefit of the parties' child/ren.

Health care coverage is not ordered in this judgment because it has already been ordered in another case as described in section 2(b) above.

(b) No Private Health Care Coverage is Appropriate or Available.

Neither Petitioner nor Respondent has appropriate private health care coverage available for the parties' child/ren. Petitioner Respondent Both Petitioner and Respondent must provide appropriate private health care coverage for the child/ren when such coverage becomes available to them at a reasonable cost through any source.

- The custodial parent shall enroll or maintain the child/ren in public health care coverage.

Complete (c) or (d):

(c) Cash Medical Support Ordered.

- Because the parent receiving cash child support is ordered to maintain private health care coverage and the parent paying cash child support is not ordered to maintain private health insurance, in addition to cash child support Petitioner Respondent must pay $_____ for cash medical support to Petitioner Respondent, or

 - Other reason: _____

(e) Responsibility for Uninsured Health Expenses.

After the custodial parent pays the first $250 per year per child, Petitioner must pay _____% and Respondent must pay _____% of the reasonably incurred uninsured health, accidental, dental, orthodontic, and optical costs incurred by the child/ren, including costs for prescriptions. This obligation is in addition to instead of any cash medical support ordered above in paragraph 2 as part of the child support award.

7. Payment of Child Support

Pursuant to ORS 25.378(1), an income withholding order shall be issued to enforce the child support obligation unless an exception is indicated below.

The parents, and the State, if support rights are assigned, have agreed in writing to an alternative arrangement; or

Good cause not to require withholding is found because there is proof of timely payment of previously-ordered support and income withholding would not be in the best interests of the child.

All payments of child support shall be made (check either (a) or (b) below):

(a) To the Oregon Department of Justice, Child Support Accounting Unit, P.O. Box 14506, Salem, Oregon, 97309 or by electronic payment withdrawal (EPW) or electronic funds transfer (EFT).

(b) Pursuant to the above exception, directly to Petitioner's Respondent's checking or savings account. A receipt of deposit shall be kept by the parent paying support as proof of payment. NOTICE OF INCOME WITHHOLDING

This child support order is enforceable by income withholding under ORS 25.378 to 25.390, 25.414 to 25.372 and 25.375. Information about the Confidential Information Form (CIF)

What is a CIF?

Most court files may be viewed by the public. Uniform Trial Court Rule (UTCRC) 2.130 requires certain confidential personal information to be protected from public disclosure. That is done by providing the information in a separate form. After you file your papers, the court keeps the form separate from the part of the court file that may be viewed by the public. The form is UTCRC Form 2.130.1, known as the Confidential Information Form, or CIF.

What information does a CIF make confidential?

The information protected by the CIF is social security numbers, birth dates, driver license numbers, and former legal names. Also protected are the name, address, and telephone number of a party's employer.

The CIF should only be used to protect the information described above. There may be other information in your court papers that you do not want the public to be able to see, such as bank account or credit card numbers. The separate process for protecting that information is described in UTCRC 2.100, which can be read at:

How do I know when I need to put information in the CIF?

When a document filed with the court requires you to include information protected by a CIF, that information must only be provided to the court in a CIF and must not be listed in any other document to be filed. Where you would otherwise provide the information in the document to be filed you must make a note that the information has been provided in the CIF. For example, if a document requires a party's full social security number to be listed, you must not list the social security number, but must instead make a note on the document that the information has been filed under UTCRC 2.130. The online court forms already have that note on the form.

Do I need to file more than one CIF?

In most cases, yes. You must fill out a CIF for yourself, and if the documents you are filing with the court require confidential personal information about the other party, you must also fill out a separate CIF with the other party's information. If your case involves children, you should include their information in your CIF. You do not need a separate CIF for your children.

If there is CIF information you do not know when you file your papers, or if the information changes during your case, you must file an amended CIF that provides the new or updated information.

The CIF rule requires you to redact – black out or erase – confidential personal information from any attachments to documents you file with the court and to make a note on the attachment that the information has been provided in the CIF. The only exception is when you are required to attach a court-certified document. Documents that are required to be court certified should not be altered in any way.

Does the other party get copies of a CIF I file?

You are not required to serve the CIFs on the other party, though you may share a CIF with the other party if you chose to do so. You are required to serve the other party with UTCR Form 2.130.2, which is a notice that a CIF has been filed. You must also file a certificate with the court showing that you served the other party with the notice that a CIF was filed.

There are steps the other party and other people can go through to ask the court to allow them access to a CIF that you have filed. UTCR 2.130 explains that process in detail, and also describes the circumstances under which the court must deny a request by someone else to view a CIF you have filed.

The CIF rule (UTCR 2.130) can be read at:

and you can find additional information about the rule at:
