

Dissolution Forms and Instructions for Co-Petitioners Packet Number 9A

Instructions

I. General Information:

A. Use black ink and print or type when you fill out your forms.

B. Always file the original forms with the clerk. You should always make yourself an extra copy before you file any form with the clerk.

C. Keep the court informed of your current address. It is your responsibility to keep the court informed of your current address. You are not required to use your residential address on any court form. You may use a contact address where you regularly check in. Your contact address will become public information. Please make sure you use an address that is okay for other people, including the other party, to know. It must be an address in the state where you live where you can receive mail. If you use a contact address, the court will assume that you will receive all notices sent to that address.

D. Case Heading. Make sure you fill in your names in the blanks at the top of the forms using your full names (first, middle or middle initial, last). Print the names the same way on all of the forms.

E. Case number. The clerk will give you a case number when you file your papers. Don't worry about filling out this part of the case heading until that time. Make sure you put this number on all your copies and papers you file with the court.

F. Signing the forms. Some of the forms in this packet have to be notarized, or signed in the presence of a court clerk. Either way, you should wait to sign your papers in front of a notary or court clerk, and should bring picture ID with you. Many local banks provide notary services.

G. Statutory Restraining Order. Oregon law requires both Co-Petitioners to obey a restraining order preventing either party from dissipating (selling, destroying, removing, disposing of) real or personal property, making unilateral (without the agreement of the other party) changes to insurance policies, and making extraordinary expenditures. Expenditures that are necessary for the safety or welfare of the parties are not prohibited. By filing your co-petition, you agree to be bound by the terms of this order. The order is effective immediately upon filing of the co-petition. If either co-petitioner violates the order, s/he may be subject to sanctions. The "Notice of Statutory Restraining Order Preventing the Dissipation of Assets in Domestic Relations Actions" is attached to the Petition (form 1).

H. Confidential Personal Information. There is certain personal information that can only be listed in a Confidential Information Form (CIF) and may not be listed in any of the other papers you file with the court. See the CIF information sheet that is part of this packet.

I. Child Support.

IMPORTANT! Oregon law requires that the petitioning party submit a CERTIFICATE stating whether there are any pending child support proceedings or existing child support orders involving the parties' child[ren]. To comply with this requirement, fill out and submit the form called "CERTIFICATE re: PENDING CHILD SUPPORT PROCEEDINGS and/or EXISTING CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS/JUDGMENTS" in this packet (form 5). You will be required to attach signed copies of any pre-existing child support orders.

In most cases, the court will order child support if the parties have a child and no child support order already exists. The amount of support, if ordered, will be determined by the Child Support Guidelines. The Guidelines have worksheets to help you figure out who should pay support and how much it should be. Support is typically withheld from wages unless an exception is allowed for direct deposit to the other parent's checking or savings account, or, if support enforcement services are being provided to either parent, as an "electronic payment withdrawal (EPW) or electronic funds transfer (EFT)" to a Department of Justice account. (EPW and EFT are procedures whereby funds are automatically withdrawn from a checking/savings account as authorized by the account holder.) Information about child support, including the Guidelines, Worksheets and a Child Support Calculator, is on the Internet at: <http://www.oregonchildsupport.gov>.

Cash Medical Support. In addition to cash child support, Oregon law may require the payment of cash medical support. If neither party has private health insurance for the child(ren) or if the health insurance is to be provided only by the parent that receives cash child support, the court is required to order cash medical support unless the court finds there are reasons not to order it. The purpose of cash medical support is to help defray the cost of health insurance and the cost of uninsured medical expenses. The judge cannot order you or the other party to pay cash medical support if you or the other party has a dependent child in the household who is eligible to receive public medical assistance or if you or the other party is eligible for public medical assistance yourselves. A party who makes no more than Oregon minimum wage cannot be ordered to pay cash medical support.

Oregon law requires the court to make sure that payment for the child(ren)'s uninsured medical expenses are addressed in the judgment. Although you may request that each party share the out-of-pocket medical expenses that exceed $250.00 per child per year, it may not be appropriate to request both the payment of cash medical support and the sharing of uninsured medical expenses. That is because one of the purposes of cash medical support is to help pay for the cost of uninsured medical expenses.

Insurance. Oregon law requires that the judgment address the issue of health insurance for any minor child involved in your case, and for payment of uninsured medical expenses. It also must provide for security for the payment of support, such as life insurance. In the health care coverage section, you must mark any of the options that apply to your family's situation. There are two major categories involved in determining health care coverage for the children: private, such as insurance available through employment, and public, such as the Oregon Health Plan.

If either you, your spouse/partner, or both of you have private health care coverage available for the children, you must fill out the “PRIVATE HEALTH CARE COVERAGE IS APPROPRIATE AND AVAILABLE” section. If neither you nor your spouse/partner have private insurance available for the children, you will fill out the section called: “NO PRIVATE INSURANCE IS APPROPRIATE OR AVAILABLE.” Regardless of insurance availability, everyone must complete the section called: “RESPONSIBILITY FOR UNINSURED HEALTH EXPENSES.” It may be appropriate to equally divide the expenses if no cash medical support is ordered or for the custodial parent to pay most or all of the uninsured expenses if cash medical support is being paid to that parent.

J. Unmarried and Unemancipated Children at Least 18 and Under 21 Years of Age.

The 2005 Legislative Assembly amended Oregon law regarding unmarried unemancipated children who are at least 18 and under 21 years of age. The new law says that these children are necessary parties to all family law cases involving support. The Petition form that deals with support will have a line to write in the child=s name, including them in the heading. The Judgment form will have a place indicating how the child has been involved in the case, and if applicable, a place to sign underneath Petitioner and Respondent signatures agreeing to the judgment. As a party to the case, these children must be legally served with all the required documents. After they are served, children may sign a Waiver of Further Appearance and Consent to Entry of Judgment form found in Packet 6J if the child does not choose to participate further in the case.

K. Optional Forms. (Available upon request)

*Waiver of Personal Service form. This form allows you to waive your right to personal service. After the judgment is final, you have the right to be personally served with a contempt charge if your ex-spouse believes you haven=t followed the provisions of the judgment. If you want to keep your residential address confidential, this form allows you to list a mailing address, business address or a specified agent, and waive your right to be personally served (to have the papers actually delivered to you in person). Should you choose to use this form, you are responsible for making sure that all papers delivered to the specified address are actually delivered to you.

* Application, Declaration and Order for Waiver or Deferral of Fees. This form allows you to defer payment of the filing fees until final judgment if you are unable to pay the fees at the time you file your petition.

II. Completing the documents

You must: (1) fill out the forms and (2) file the forms with the clerk.

A. Fill out the forms.

You may schedule an appointment for the Family Court Assistance Office to review your documents by calling 541-682-4302.

III. Filing the documents.

A. File the forms with the clerk.

When you have finished filling out your forms, file the following original forms with the clerk: (1) Petition for Dissolution, (2) Certificate of Document Preparation, (3) UTCR 2.130 Confidential Information Forms (CIFs), (4) Notice of CIF Filing, (5) Certificate re: Pending Child Support Proceedings and/or Existing Child Support Orders/Judgments, and the Record of Dissolution of Marriage. You should make one copy of the forms you file with the clerk for your own record. You must also make one additional copy of the UTCR 2.130 Confidential Information Forms (form 3) if child support is involved in your case. You are required to submit these copies to the court at the time you finalize your case if child support was ordered. The copies of form 3 along with a copy of your General Judgment (form 10) will be sent to Child Support Services.

Payment of fees. When you file your petition for divorce, you must pay a filing fee. You may ask the court to defer payment of this fee, by filling out an "Application, Declaration and Order for Waiver or Deferral of Fees" form. You may obtain the form and a fee schedule from the court clerk or the Family Court Assistance Office. You will need to attend an Ex parte hearing to have a judge make a decision on the fee deferral/waiver. Ex parte takes place Monday through Friday from 8:30 to 8:50 a.m., it is a hearing where judges are available to sign documents and you do not need to have an appointment to attend. You will not be allowed to file your divorce petition until you either pay the fee, or get the deferral form signed by a judge. (If the court "defers" your fee, you will be required to pay all deferred fees back to the court at a later date.) You must file your forms on the same day you see a judge for the fee deferral/waiver.

B. Serve Division of Child Support.

If you or your spouse are receiving public assistance (in relation to a child; see ORS 418.035(2)), you also need to serve by mail or personally deliver a true copy of the Petition for Dissolution of Marriage to the Administrator of the Division of Child Support (Division of Child Support, Department of Justice, 165 E. 7th Avenue, Suite 300, Eugene, Oregon 97401). After you have mailed or delivered a true copy of the Petition, you must fill out and file form (6) with the court clerk.

C. Serving children who are necessary parties.

Because all unmarried, unemancipated children at least 18 and under 21 years of age are necessary parties to the case, they must also be served. These children will also need to be served with copies of the forms you have filed with the clerk.

IV. Focus on Children

Complete the “Focus on Children” registration form within 15 days of filing your petition and mail or deliver the form to the address provided on the registration. You may also register online at www.lanecounty.org/FamilyMediation, follow the links for Focus on Children. 8. Order Allowing Judgment on Affidavit in Lieu of Hearing

9. Co-Petitioner’s Affidavit Supporting Judgment of Dissolution.

You do not need to have an appointment to attend. You must first check in with the civil/domestic cashiers on the second floor of the courthouse. You may submit a copy of your documents when you submit the originals. Once the judge signs your documents, the clerk will conform your copies.

If there were no existing child support orders when this case was filed you are finished. If there was an existing child support order, and the final judgment in this case says that the other order is now “satisfied” or “superseded” (see page 8 of the judgment), the parties to this case are responsible for providing a certified copy of the judgment in this case to the court or agency that issued the first child support order.

Information about the Confidential Information Form (CIF)

What is a CIF?

Most court files may be viewed by the public. Uniform Trial Court Rule (UTCRC) 2.130 requires certain confidential personal information to be protected from public disclosure. That is done by providing the information in a separate form. After you file your papers, the court keeps the form separate from the part of the court file that may be viewed by the public. The form is UTCRC Form 2.130.1, known as the Confidential Information Form, or CIF.

What information does a CIF make confidential?

The information protected by the CIF is social security numbers, birth dates, driver license numbers, and former legal names. Also protected are the name, address, and telephone number of a party's employer.

The CIF should only be used to protect the information described above. There may be other information in your court papers that you do not want the public to be able to see, such as bank account or credit card numbers. The separate process for protecting that information is described in UTCRC 2.100, which can be read at:

How do I know when I need to put information in the CIF?

When a document filed with the court requires you to include information protected by a CIF, that information must only be provided to the court in a CIF and must not be listed in any other document to be filed. Where you would otherwise provide the information in the document to be filed you must make a note that the information has been provided in the CIF. For example, if a document requires a party's full social security number to be listed, you must not list the social security number, but must instead make a note on the document that the information has been filed under UTCRC 2.130. The online court forms already have that note on the form.

Do I need to file more than one CIF?

In most cases, yes. You must fill out a CIF for yourself, and if the documents you are filing with the court require confidential personal information about the other party, you must also fill out a separate CIF with the other party's information. If your case involves children, you should include their information in your CIF. You do not need a separate CIF for your children.

If there is CIF information you do not know when you file your papers, or if the information changes during your case, you must file an amended CIF that provides the new or updated information.

The CIF rule requires you to redact – black out or erase – confidential personal information from any attachments to documents you file with the court and to make a note on the attachment that the information has been provided in the CIF. The only exception is when you are required to attach a court-certified document. Documents that are required to be court certified should not be altered in any way.

Does the other party get copies of a CIF I file?

You are not required to serve the CIFs on the other party, though you may share a CIF with the other party if you chose to do so. You are required to serve the other party with UTCR Form 2.130.2, which is a notice that a CIF has been filed. You must also file a certificate with the court showing that you served the other party with the notice that a CIF was filed.

There are steps the other party and other people can go through to ask the court to allow them access to a CIF that you have filed. UTCR 2.130 explains that process in detail, and also describes the circumstances under which the court must deny a request by someone else to view a CIF you have filed.

The CIF rule (UTCR 2.130) can be read at:

and you can find additional information about the rule at:

STATE OF _____ )

We, _____ and _____, being first duly sworn, say: we are co-petitioners in this proceeding. We were married on _____ in the County of _____, State of _____. Irreconcilable differences between us have caused the irremediable breakdown of our marriage.  Wife  Husband was an Oregon resident continuously for more than six months immediately prior to commencement of this suit.  No domestic relations suits involving this marriage are pending in any other court.

(date)

There are _____ child/ren of the marriage.  The wife is pregnant with husband's child.

The wife was cohabiting with the husband when the child was conceived. The expected date of the child's birth is _____.

The wife is not now pregnant.

Child/ren named _____ was/were born to the wife on the following dates: _____ Do not list. Provide by UTCR 2.130 CIF _____, during this marriage. The husband is not the father of the child/ren. The wife was not cohabiting with the husband when the child/ren was/were conceived.

The wife is pregnant at this time and the husband is not the father of this child. The wife was not cohabiting with the husband when this child was conceived. The expected date of the child's birth is _____.

This case is now ready for a hearing on the merits. We make this affidavit in support of a Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage without a hearing. The allegations in our Petition are true and it is just and reasonable that we be granted the relief requested.

Child custody or child support is involved in this case:

CHILD CUSTODY JURISDICTION

Home State Jurisdiction:

The child/ren have lived in Oregon for the last six months.

The child/ren are not now living in Oregon, but have lived in Oregon for at least six consecutive months (at least part of which period occurred in the last six months), and a parent or acting parent continues to live in Oregon.

Significant Connection Jurisdiction:

The child/ren and _____ have significant connections to (Name of parent or caretaker)

Oregon and substantial evidence about the child/ren's care, protection, training, and personal relationships is available here, AND:

There is no 'home state' because the child/ren have not lived in any one state for six consecutive months, at least a part of which period occurred in the last six months; or

The 'home state' has declined jurisdiction in favor of Oregon.

Temporary Emergency Jurisdiction:

The child/ren are physically present in Oregon and have been abandoned or an emergency exists requiring the child/ren's protection because the child/ren, sibling(s), and/or parent are subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse.

There is not another child custody proceeding pending in a court of a state having jurisdiction under ORS 109.741 – 109.747. This Order based on Temporary Emergency Jurisdiction remains in effect until an Order is obtained from a Court of a state having ‘home state’ or ‘significant connection’ jurisdiction. If a child custody proceeding has not been or is not commenced in a court of a state having either ‘home state’ or ‘significant connection’ jurisdiction, this Order becomes a final determination if Oregon becomes the ‘home state’ of the child/ren.

This Order based on Temporary Emergency Jurisdiction remains in effect until the _____ day of _____, 20____, or until an Order is obtained from the other state within that period.

Oregon does not have jurisdiction under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act because: _____
_____

The current residence of the minor child/ren is:

Name of Child	Resides with	For how long
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Child support is involved: Husband’s gross monthly income is approximately $ _____ Wife’s gross monthly income is approximately $ _____. The child support amount we have requested  does not deviate from the amount presumed correct under Oregon Administrative Rules, or  does deviate from the amount presumed correct of $ _____ because: _____
_____

There is an existing child support order, a copy of which is on file in the case. As of today’s date, the back child support owed is _____. The next payment of _____ (Total amount not paid to date) (Monthly payment) is due on _____ .

(Date due)

Co-Petitioner/s, (write name/s) _____ has/have appropriate private health care coverage available for the parties' child/ren either through an employer, union, or other source, or through a domestic partner, spouse or other family member residing with them (describe type of coverage): _____

We request that  Co-Petitioner, (write name) _____ be ordered to maintain this coverage throughout the period of the support obligation for the benefit of the parties' child/ren.

Both Co-Petitioners have appropriate private health care coverage available for the parties' child/ren. We select the following health care coverage to be maintained throughout the period of the support obligation:  Co-Petitioner's, (write name) _____  Both Co-Petitioner's (describe type/s of coverage): _____

Neither Co-Petitioner has appropriate private health care coverage available for the parties' child/ren and,

Co-Petitioner, (write name) _____  Both Co-Petitioners should be ordered to apply for and enroll the child/ren in public health care coverage.

Co-Petitioner, (write name) _____ has already applied to enroll the child/ren in public health care coverage. This coverage should be maintained if the child/ren are accepted for enrollment.

The child/ren are currently enrolled in public health care coverage. This coverage should be maintained.

Both Co-Petitioners should be ordered to provide appropriate private health care coverage when such coverage becomes available to them through any source.

Cash medical support should be ordered because:

Neither party has appropriate private health care coverage available for the child/ren.

The party receiving cash child support is also the party providing private health care coverage.

The child support worksheet submitted with our judgment shows that cash medical support should be $_____ per month.

Co-Petitioner _____ should pay, in addition to cash child support, cash medical support in the amount of $_____ per month.

Cash medical support should not be ordered because:

Co-Petitioner _____  Co-Petitioner

has income that is no more than full-time Oregon minimum wage or is/are eligible for Oregon public assistance.

The parties should share the child/ren's uninsured medical expenses as described below.

Cash medical support has already been ordered in another case.

Other reasons: _____

Co-Petitioner, (write name) _____ should pay _____%  and Co-Petitioner, (write name) _____ should pay _____% of the uninsured HEALTH, ACCIDENT, DENTAL, ORTHODONTIC, AND OPTICAL HEALTH costs incurred by the child/ren. This obligation should be  in addition to  instead of any cash medical support.

Spousal support is involved in this case.

Husband  Wife is entitled to transitional spousal support because: _____

Husband  Wife is entitled to compensatory spousal support based upon the following contribution to the education, training, vocational skills, career or earning capacity of the other party: _____ either 'home state' or 'significant connection' jurisdiction, this Order becomes a final determination if Oregon becomes the 'home state' of the child/ren.

There is another child custody proceeding pending in a court of a state having jurisdiction under ORS 109.741 – 109.747. This Order based on Temporary Emergency Jurisdiction remains in effect until the _____ day of _____, 20____, or until an Order is obtained from the other state within that period.

Oregon does not have jurisdiction under the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction Act because: _____
_____

- Waived further appearance in these proceedings.
- Signed and stipulated to the terms of judgment evidenced by the signature below.
- Fully participated in the proceedings and the judgment effectively binds him/her to the terms.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

PARENTING PLAN

Custody of the child/ren is awarded as follows:

Wife is awarded legal custody of the following child/ren: _____
_____

Husband is awarded legal custody of the following child/ren: _____
_____

The parties are awarded joint legal custody of the following child/ren: _____

Husband  Wife  Both parties shall have reasonable parenting time with the child/ren.

Specific parenting time should be as follows: _____

See attached parenting plan, labeled "Exhibit 1."

Neither parent shall move to a residence more than 60 miles further distant from the other parent without giving the other parent reasonable notice of the change of residence and providing a copy of such notice to the court, or  the requirement of ORS 107.159 regarding notice of move is suspended for good cause found.

Wife and Husband shall each provide contact addresses and contact telephone numbers to the other and notify each other of any emergency circumstances or substantial changes in the child/ren's health.

NOTICE ABOUT PARENTING TIME AND CHILD SUPPORT

The terms of child support and parenting time (visitation) are designed for the child's benefit and not the parents' benefit. You must pay support even if you are not receiving parenting time. You must comply with parenting time and visitation orders even if you are not receiving child support.

Violation of child support orders and visitation or parenting time orders is punishable by fine, imprisonment or other penalties.

Publicly funded help is available to establish, enforce, and modify child support orders. Paternity establishment services are also available. Contact your local district attorney, the domestic relations court clerk, or the Department of Human Resources at 1-800-850-0228 or 503-378-5567 for information.

Publicly funded help may be available to establish, enforce, and modify parenting time or visitation orders. Forms are available to enforce parenting time or visitation orders. Contact the domestic relations or civil court clerk for information.

NOTICE ABOUT PERIODIC REVIEW AND MODIFICATION OF CHILD SUPPORT ORDERS

If your child support case is handled by the District Attorney or the Division of Child Support Services (DCS), this agency will review your child support order if at least three years have passed since the order was entered, modified, or last reviewed. This review will take place only if a parent requests. The purpose of the review is to see if the amount ordered is still within the guidelines for child support set out in Oregon law. The review could result in an increase or decrease in the support amount, depending on the parents' financial circumstances and the needs of the child. This "periodic review" service is provided at no cost to parents, but is available only for cases handled by the District Attorney or DCS.

The support agency handling your case will also review your support order for compliance with the guidelines whenever a substantial change in circumstance has occurred. You can request this "change in circumstance" modification from the support agency. But any support order (not just orders handled by the District Attorney or DCS) can be modified because of a change in circumstance, so a private attorney is able to assist you with this, too. You may also represent yourself.
