OJD's New Website Goes Live Today—Monday, April 4, 2011!!!

The new OJD internet and intranet websites are up and running today, featuring user friendly navigation and role based pages containing information for specific user categories. On the public OJD internet site, users can link to pages for attorneys, jurors, case participants, the self-represented, and a variety of public and attorney court services.

The screenshot shows the public website for Oregon Courts. The header includes the Oregon Judicial Department logo, the title "Oregon Courts", and navigation links for "Judge/Employee Sign In", "Public Portal Sign in", "Help", and "Text Size A+ A- A". A search bar is located in the top right. Below the header is a main navigation menu with categories: Courts, Services, Materials & Resources, Administration, and Programs. The main content area is divided into several sections:

- How Do I ...?: A dropdown menu with options like "Contact a court", "File a case", "Find an attorney", "Find a case", "Find a form", "Find divorce information", and "Find fee information".
- I am...: Four role-based buttons: "An Attorney" (with a briefcase icon), "A Juror" (with a jury box icon), "A Case Participant" (with a courtroom icon), and "Self-Represented" (with a person icon).
- Court Calendars: A section with a calendar graphic and a link to "Search court calendars" to find court cases by attorney name, date, county, or party name.
- Questions about a family Court Case?: A section featuring a photo of a family and a link to "See our Family and Children Resources" and "More information...".

On OJD's internal website homepage, judges and staff will also find user friendly navigation and role based pages containing useful information for judges, staff, TCAs & managers, and TSSs & technology staff. There are convenient links to the OJD Time Sheet page, the Oregon eCourt pages, the comments and suggestions page, the Human Resource Services Division page, and a Website Quick Reference Guide to help familiarize users with new features.
