Major Decisions (Joint or Sole Custody ORS 107.169)

The designation of Joint or Sole Custody is set forth in the Judgment or Order to which this parenting plan is attached and which has been signed by a Judge.

1. Parenting Time Schedule

The children shall be with Parent B on the following schedule. They shall be with Parent A at all other times unless otherwise specified in Sections 1.1 and 1.2. If a child turns 3 years old and there is no schedule in 1.1(b), then the schedule in 1.1(a) will continue.

If there are children who would have different parenting time schedules because they are in different age groups, parenting time for all the children shall be based on the schedule for the oldest child that is present for the parenting time, unless a child is younger than 36 months. In that case, the schedules for “Children ages birth to 12 months” and “Children ages 1 year and older who have not turned 3 years old” shall apply to those children as set forth in Sections 1.1 and 1.2.

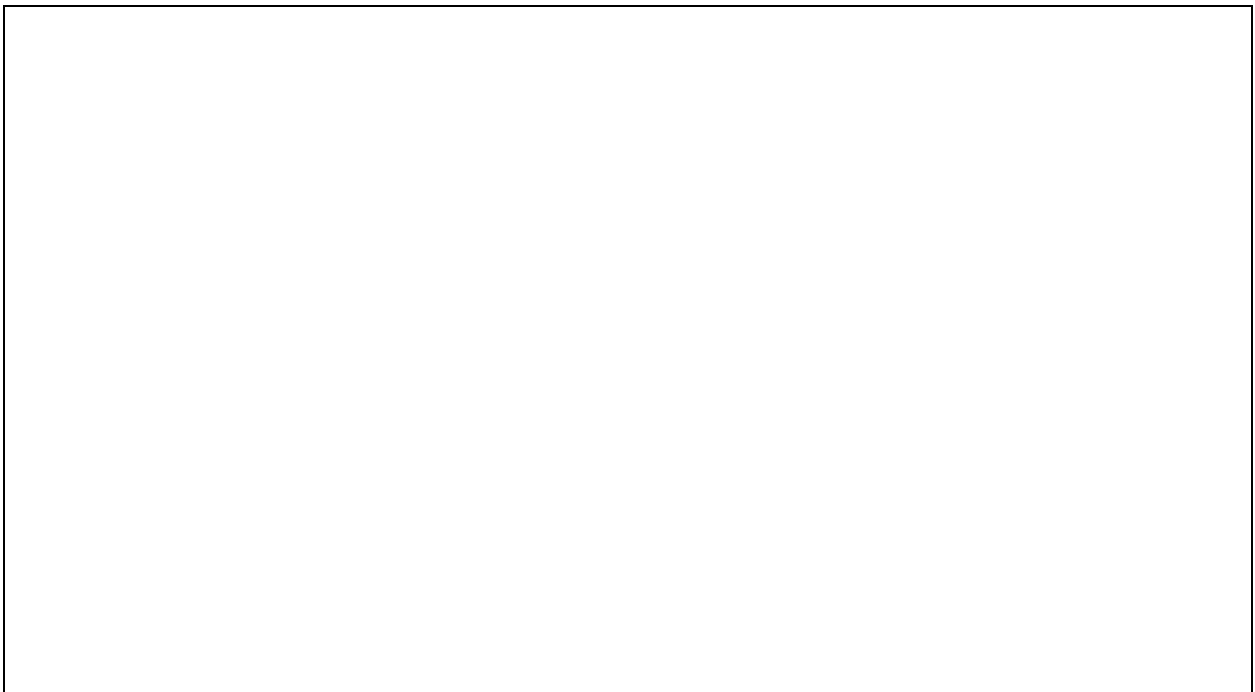

If there are children who would have different parenting time schedules because they are in different age groups, parenting time for all the children shall be based on the schedule for the oldest child that is present for the parenting time.

11. Child Safety Rules

Parent A Parent B shall follow the safety rules checked below (check all that apply).
If Parent A Parent B violates any of the rules below, the other parent may seek the court's help through a contempt action. If the violation poses an immediate threat to the children, the specific parenting time may be stopped.

- The children shall not be transported in a car unless the driver has a valid driver's license, car insurance, seat belts, and child safety seats as required by Oregon law.
- There shall be no firearms in the home or in the children's presence during parenting time.
- The children shall not be physically disciplined.
- Medications prescribed by a licensed physician shall not be withheld from the children and both parents shall ensure that medications are administered as prescribed. The children must have the medication when parenting time starts and it must be returned with the children when parenting time ends.

The following person(s) shall not be present during parenting time:

- Drug and/or alcohol testing shall be required as follows (describe in detail the type of test, frequency, who pays, and consequence of a failed test):

Other child safety rules

12. Other Rules

13. Information Sharing (ORS 107.154 and ORS 107.164)

Unless otherwise ordered by the court:

- Each parent shall have equal access to important information about the children including, but not limited to, the children's current mailing address, street address, and telephone number.
- Each parent shall immediately notify the other parent about any emergency circumstances or substantial changes in the health of the children.
- If either parent takes the children from that parent's usual residence for 24 hours or more, that parent shall notify the other parent of any emergency contact phone number and where the children will be staying.

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, both parents always have the right:

- To inspect and receive school records and to consult with school staff concerning the children's welfare and education.
- To inspect and receive governmental agency and law enforcement records concerning the children.
- To consult with any person who may provide care or treatment for the children and to inspect and receive the children's medical, dental, and psychological records.
- To authorize emergency medical, dental, psychological, psychiatric, or other healthcare for the children.

14. Future Move of a Parent

Unless otherwise ordered, if either parent wants to move more than 60 miles further away from the other parent, written notice of the move shall be provided to the Court and the other parent at least 45 days before moving. This requirement applies to both parents regardless of who has legal custody of the children. If the move will impact the other parent's time with the children, a change to the parenting time schedule shall be made as described in Section 15 below.

15. Changes to the Parenting Plan

Changes to the parenting plan may be made if both parents agree. The changes will not be enforceable unless the changes are part of a Judgment or an Order that has been signed by a Judge. A parent may also ask the Court to make changes to the parenting plan by filing a modification, even if the other parent doesn't agree, as long as the changes are in the best interests of the children.

16. Enforcement

This plan is enforceable by the Court when it is a part of a Judgment or an Order that has been signed by a Judge. If one parent does not follow the rules in this plan, the other parent is not excused from following the rules.

17. Mediation

- If the parents are unable to resolve a disagreement about the parenting plan, they shall use mediation prior to court action, unless there is a threat to safety or waiver of the requirement by a Judge.
