TRIALS

6.012 SETTLEMENT CONFERENCES

- 1) Upon the joint request of the parties, and at the discretion of the judge, the court may set a judicial settlement conference. The court will follow the procedure in UTCR 6.200 if there is a request for settlement conference that the other party objects to being set.
- 2) The parties will submit settlement letters to the court no later than 48 hours, excluding weekends, prior to the settlement conference outlining the information the party believes will assist the judge in settlement negotiations. Each settlement conference shall be scheduled to allow adequate time for meaningful settlement discussions.
- 3) The court will only allow one settlement conference unless good cause is shown why another settlement conference should be allowed.
- 4) Each party or representative of a corporation or insurance company who has full authority to settle and compromise the litigation must personally appear at the settlement conference, unless video or telephonic appearances are permitted for good cause.
- 5) Settlement conferences will be handled by visiting or senior judges unless there are written waivers of conflict for the presiding judge to participate in the settlement conference and remain the trial and sentence judge. If the court is unable to obtain the services of a visiting or senior judge, the court at its discretion may deny the request for a settlement conference.
- 6) All settlements will be placed on the record upon settlement. All criminal cases, where there is a settlement on charges, shall have a plea to the charges in the negotiated settlement placed on the record the day of the settlement supported by a plea petition.
- 7) The pretrial settlement conference shall not delay the trial scheduling.

6.061 JURY INSTRUCTIONS

- 1) In addition to filing the instructions, an attorney or party shall send instructions to jury.instructions.JD24@ojd.state.us in Microsoft Word format and in jury-ready form that excludes reference to citations or instruction numbers.
- 2) Draft written instructions and verdict form shall be submitted to the court 48 hours prior to the start of trial.
- 3) Nothing in this rule prevents the parties from requesting additional or modified instructions at the trial as required by the facts or law.

CHAPTER 7 CASE MANAGEMENT AND CALENDARING

7.011 DATES FOR APPEARANCE

- 1) Dates for Hearing on Motions:
The Trial Court Administrator will set hearing dates and advise the parties in writing by regular or electronic mail.
- 2) Dates for Hearing on Orders to Show Cause:
The initial date set for appearance on orders to show cause shall be set forth therein and the order shall be personally served on the person ordered to appear. If there is no appearance as ordered, the matter may be determined at the time set for hearing on the order. If the person ordered to appear does appear and indicates a desire to contest the issues raised in the order to show cause, and the parties are ready to proceed at the time, the hearing shall proceed at that time if there is time available. If the parties are not ready to proceed or there is not sufficient time available for a hearing, a hearing will be set for a later time. The Trial Court Administrator will thereafter confirm the hearing date and time by notice in writing.
- 3) Dates for Trials:
The Trial Court Administrator will set trial dates and advise the parties in writing by regular or electronic mail.
- 4) Trial Assignments:
The court will set a Trial Assignment Hearing for the Thursday immediately preceding the trial date at 1:15 p.m. When a Thursday is a holiday, or no judge is available, Trial Assignment may be scheduled at another date and time by the court. At Trial Assignment, the Judge will designate which trial will be going forward the following week, and the trials not going will be given a new trial date. Criminal defendants are required to appear in person or by WebEx.

7.012 PLEA PETITION REQUIREMENTS

- 1) The district attorney's office will submit a plea offer as soon as practicable, but in any event not later than ten days prior to the scheduled entry of plea.
- 2) Counsel for the defendant shall discuss with their client the state's offer, complete negotiations, and finalize written plea petitions prior to the time set for plea.
- 3) Plea petitions are required in all cases involving criminal charges unless allowed by the court with a good cause shown. Plea petitions shall be submitted to the court at least 48 hours prior to the plea hearing.
- 4) The court may find a good cause exception to the above timelines and extend the date for plea. Counsel shall request an extension of the date by written motion supported by affidavit setting forth the basis.

7.091 USE OF VIDEO CONFERENCING OR TELEPHONE FOR APPEARANCES IN ALL PROCEEDINGS

- 1) Parties may appear either in person or via video conferencing using the court's WebEx video conferencing tool, with prior permission from the court. If using WebEx, all parties, including litigants, must utilize the video feature. Parties should confer regarding witness appearances by video. If there is an objection, the moving party shall file a Motion for video appearance. The following exceptions apply:
 - a) Parties must appear in person when personal physical appearance is required by statute.
 - b) Defendants must appear in person for arraignment if they have not been previously booked and fingerprinted.
 - c) All parties must appear in person for jury trials.

- 3) If any party appearing pursuant to this rule is inaudible, the court will set the hearing over and require the party to appear in person.

7.101 IN CAMERA REVIEW OF RECORDS

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a motion for the in-camera review of records by the court shall be presented to the court as follows:

- 1) Parties seeking an in-camera review of documents shall file a motion supported by an affidavit which includes the following: a factual and legal summary of the case to enable the reviewing judge to understand the factual and legal issues in the case as related to the records request; a description of the information sought with as much specificity as possible; and the legal basis for the request.
- 2) Disclosure of records released will be limited to the attorneys, attorney staff and expert witnesses employed by the attorney. There will be a protective order, as set forth in these rules, issued in each case, prohibiting disclosure of the records or copying of the records, including copies to clients and all other persons without further order of the court. Self-represented litigants will be required to sign the protective order prior to receiving any copies of the documents disclosed by the court.
- 3) The party seeking disclosure of the records must provide notice to the person to whom the records pertain to allow the effected person to appear and object to disclosure as required by law. Proof of applicable notice must be provided to the court prior to the order being allowed.
- 4) The request for in camera review must be raised by motion with opportunity for opposing party to be heard if requested. The requesting party should not simply issue a subpoena for records to be delivered to the court. If this occurs, the court will not review the records.
- 5) The request for in camera review should be made as soon as practicable prior to a contested adjudication, or other hearing where the documents may be used.
- 6) The court requires, whenever possible, the records be submitted to the court in electronic format, and that the released records will be submitted to the attorneys in electronic format through a secure means. At the end of the case, all copies of records shall be returned to the court for destruction. If the court provided the records in a secure format, then an affidavit of destruction indicating that the electronic version of the records has been destroyed shall be filed with the court.

 - iii. If the Uniform Support Declaration is not completely filled out with all necessary exhibits, it may not be considered by the court and the party will be required to submit a completed form.”

CHAPTER 12 MEDIATION

12.031 MEDIATOR QUALIFICATIONS

To qualify as a court-approved mediator, a person must:

- 1) Sign and file an application with the Court.
- 2) Be approved by the Presiding Judge.
- 3) Be approved by the County Court.

12.151 MATTERS SUBJECT TO MEDIATION

1) Mandatory Mediation:

- a) Any matter described in ORS 107.765 and any other proceedings where child custody or a parenting plan is at issue, unless otherwise exempted by law, shall be subject to mandatory mediation. The court will not consider any contested parenting plan issues in a proceeding that results in a final judgment or order, unless it is notified by a mediator that the matter has proceeded through mediation in accordance with these rules. Request for prejudgment custody and parenting plan orders under ORS 107.095 are not subject to mandatory mediation, but mediation will be ordered on the joint request of the parties.
- b) Mediation is mandatory because mediation allows for a customized, workable agreement and reduces the damage to relationships. Parties should participate actively and in good faith. If parties are represented, legal counsel should advise their client in matters of law. The mediator has control of the mediation process as stated in these rules. Counsel should encourage their client, unless mediation is not appropriate for reasons stated in these rules, to engage in the mediation process in good faith in order to seek a resolution that is in the best interest of their children.

2) Exclusion From Mediation:

- a) The court may exclude a case from mandatory mediation for good cause shown after hearing on the motion of a party with service on the opposing party. Cases involving domestic violence will be subject to adopted domestic violence protocols.

3) Other Matters:

- a) The mediator shall not consider matters of property division or spousal or child support in connection with the mediation of a dispute concerning child custody, parenting time, or visitation, or otherwise without the written approval of both parties or their counsel.

12.161 CONTROL AGREEMENTS

A domestic relations case filed in Circuit Court remains subject to the control of the Circuit Court during mediation. The court which refers a case to mediation may set in its referral order the limits of the mediator's scope of authority in the case. Any agreements of the parties reached as a result of mediation for which court enforcement may be sought must be presented to the court in judgment form. The court shall retain final authority to accept, modify or reject the agreement. In order to preserve and prompt the integrity of mediation as a dispute resolution technique, the court shall consider and may include all reasonable agreements reached by the parties in formulating its judgment in the case.

12.171 REFERRAL TO MEDIATION

When the parties have not requested mediation, but it appears that parenting plan/custody issues are part of a proceeding that will result in a final judgment or order, the court shall refer the matter to mediation. "At issue" means that the case is ready to be set for trial or if a party seeks to modify the parenting time or custody provision of a divorce judgment or a judgment establishing paternity when the case is ready to be set for hearing.

12.181 AUTHORITY OF MEDIATORS

- 1) A mediator has authority and control over the mediation process; but a mediator has no control or authority over the parties or over their decisions in the case.
- 2) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties and mediator, the parties' legal counsel shall not be present at mediation sessions.
- 3) A mediator shall encourage disputing parties to obtain individual legal advice and individual legal review of any mediation agreement before signing any agreement.
- 4) A mediator shall not act as a lawyer for either party.

12.191 MEDIATION ORIENTATION

- 1) Mediation shall consist of an orientation session and a maximum of (8) eight hours of sessions involving the parties and mediator. Additional sessions may be provided at the parties' expense.
- 2) Parties may forego orientation for good cause with the court's approval.

12.201 APPOINTMENT OF MEDIATOR

- 1) The parties may select a mediator of their own choosing, but if the mediator is not on the list of mediators approved by the court the expense of the mediator shall be the responsibility of the parties.
- 2) The court shall appoint a mediator from a list of approved mediators once a response/answer has been filed. The notice will be sent out to the mediator and both parties. If parties are represented by an attorney, their attorney will receive the notice. The mediator or the court will contact either the parties directly or their attorney to schedule mediation orientation and the mediation session. The initial session will occur within 14 days from the date the mediator receives notice or as soon thereafter as possible.

12.211 MEDIATION CONCLUSION

- 1) Mediation shall be concluded in a prompt manner without undue delay of the court proceedings. All cases assigned to mediation must conclude mediation within 90 days of assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court. The mediator shall file with the court a notice that mediation was successful or unsuccessful.
- 2) If the parties come to an agreement in mediation the written mediated agreement shall be attached to or the terms restated in the judgment and presented to the court.

12.221 MEDIATION WHERE POWER IMBALANCE EXISTS

- 1) Where there is a restraining order between the parties, a history of domestic violence or abuse, an extreme imbalance in the power relationship between the parties or other reason to believe that mediation may be inappropriate, a party may contact the assigned mediator to request that the parties meet with the mediator separately, the presence of a support person during mediation, telephonic mediation, or another remedy. A mediator may exclude a support person from a session if the support person disrupts the process of mediation.
- 2) The mediator may arrange separate sessions, require telephonic mediation, or terminate mediation at any time if the mediator believes that issues of violence, abuse, threatening behavior, manipulation, or power imbalance make further mediation inappropriate. In any telephonic mediation, both parties will participate by telephone.

NOTE: the privacy of records and confidentiality of communications in mediation are governed by ORS 107.785

CHAPTER 13 ARBITRATION

13.121 COMPENSATION OF ARBITRATORS

- 1) If parties do not pay their pro rata share of the preliminary payment for the arbitrator within 14 days from assignment of the arbitrator, the court may exercise its authority under UTCR 1.090(2).
- 2) Indigent parties may seek waiver or deferral of the arbitrator's fee within 14 days from the date the case is assigned to arbitration. The request must be submitted by motion and order, supported by an affidavit setting forth with specificity the party's income, assets and expenses and presented to the Presiding Judge for approval. In the event the funds are available under ORS 36.420 for the payment of fees waived or deferred, the arbitrator shall be reimbursed after filing of the arbitration award.
- 3) NOTE: The arbitration commission has established a compensation schedule for arbitrators. The arbitrator shall be compensated at the rate of $150.00 per hour (or any greater sum agreed upon by the parties), not to exceed 10 hours, for hearings and related work. Each party shall pay a $600.00 deposit directly to the arbitrator prior to the arbitrator beginning work on the case. The arbitrator shall be compensated at the rate of $75.00 per hour for travel.
