(2) Failure to call in at the scheduled time of appearance shall be considered failure to appear. The Court may decide the issue before the court based on the evidence before the court.

(3) Failure of a criminal defendant to appear by telephone when authorized to do so, shall be considered failure to appear and will be subject to action by the District Attorney.

3.052 REMOTE APPEARANCE CELLULAR TELEPHONE

If telephone appearance is pre-approved by the court, parties may appear by cellular telephone only if cell phones are used in good reception areas.

3.142 ATTORNEY OF RECORD

any case except those attorneys appointed by the court.

3.181 ELECTRONIC RECORDING ON COURTHOUSE PREMISES

- (1) Any party seeking to electronically record a court proceeding shall file with the Trial Court Administrator (TCA) a written request in advance of commencing coverage.
- (2) Electronic recording is prohibited in the hallways outside any courtroom or court offices without prior authorization by the Judge presiding in the case or the Trial Court Administrator.  - (c) Disclosure of mandatory sentence terms;
 - (d) List of dismissed counts; and

- (8) Each judicial settlement conference shall be scheduled to allow adequate time for meaningful settlement discussions. Additional settlement conferences may be scheduled by the assigned judge or by agreement of all attorneys and parties.
- (9) The judicial settlement conference shall not delay the trial scheduling, but the Presiding Judge may delegate to the assigned judge limited or unlimited authority to continue the trial date by the mutual agreement of the parties and their attorneys.
- (10) No judge conducting a judicial settlement conference under this rule shall be permitted to act as trial judge if the case does not settle, unless the parties stipulate to such procedure.
- (11) Each attorney or party shall submit to the assigned judge, at least one business day prior to the scheduled judicial settlement conference, information regarding the case. In domestic relations cases, counsel shall also provide a copy of the proposed distribution of assets and liabilities, and, if support is involved, the proposal for and computation of support, to opposing counsel at least one business day prior to the scheduled judicial settlement conference. Except for the information described in the preceding sentence, any documents or information submitted to the judge shall be presumed confidential, unless a copy is provided to the opposing side(s). The assigned judge shall make available forms for the submission of such information, but an attorney or party may submit such other or further information to the judge to inform the court of the issues in the case.
- (12) No submissions under SLR 6.012(11) shall be included in the court file, nor shall any notes prepared by the judge be filed or otherwise disclosed, except by permission of the attorneys and/or parties or by court order.
- (13) The assigned judicial settlement conference judge shall inform the assigned clerk of the occurrence of the conference, the possibilities of settlement, and the estimated length of trial time, in the event the case does not settle at the conference. No other information regarding the case or the conference shall be communicated to the trial judge or the jury.

6.061 SUBMISSION OF JURY INSTRUCTIONS

Unless otherwise directed by the court, jury instructions shall be filed with the court no later than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the start of the trial. Depending upon the nature and complexity of the civil case, the Judge may require jury instructions to be submitted on a CD.

6.081 EXHIBITS

In order for the Trial Court Administrator to comply with Oregon Judicial Department policy pertaining to the listing and valuing of exhibits offered as evidence, the exhibits will be assigned a value of zero unless the party submitting the exhibit supplies a written opinion as to their value to the Trial Court Administrator.

6.135 TRIAL, HEARING AND JURY FEES

Pursuant to ORS 21.225, in all civil cases, the trial fee, hearing fee and jury fee (unless deferred or waived) shall be paid to the Trial Court Administrator at the time the trial date is set and in no case less than one full court day prior to the scheduled trial. CHAPTER 7

7.011 SCHEDULING OF CRIMINAL TRIALS

Criminal trials shall be set in open court in the presence of the defendant, defense attorney and prosecutor so that all interested persons will have actual notice thereof. This will ordinarily occur at the time of entry of plea. Attorneys will be expected to have their personal calendars available for discussion.

7.015 SCHEDULING AND NOTIFICATION OF PARTIES FOR TRIAL AND MOTIONS

- (1) Scheduling of civil and domestic relations trial shall be as follows: When a civil or domestic relations case is at issue, the docket clerk will forward to the attorney or the self-represented party, a Trial Setting Order, (substantially in the form set forth on Appendix 1, attached hereto and incorporated herein). Each attorney or self-represented party shall accurately complete each provision of the questionnaire and return it to the court by the date shown on the questionnaire. The docket clerk will schedule a trial based upon the information obtained and give written notice to counsel or self-represented party in accordance with section (3) of this rule.
- (2) Upon the filing of a motion or response requesting oral argument, in accordance with UTCR 5.050(1), the docket clerk shall schedule the matter for argument. All motions will be scheduled for the time estimated in the request, but not more than thirty (30) minutes. An attorney or self-represented party receiving a notice scheduling an amount of time for argument which the attorney or self-represented party believes is insufficient, shall advise the docket clerk of that insufficiency immediately.
- (3) Notification of the dates for trial and motions shall be given as follows:
 - (a) Notice of the date set for trial in a criminal, civil or domestic relations case shall be sent to counsel or self-represented party. The written notice shall inform counsel of the date and hour trial is scheduled to commence, the number of days scheduled and whether it is before the Court or to a jury.
 - (b) When a motion is scheduled for argument, the docket clerk shall send to counsel for each party a written notice stating the date, the hour and the amount of time scheduled for argument. Unless counsel makes arrangements for a conference call, all arguments will be heard in person in the courtroom. The court has a speaker phone system which can be set-up in the courtroom so the court reporter can make a record of argument made by counsel appearing by conference call. Counsel desiring to proceed in that manner shall advise the docket clerk of their need for a court reporter at least one hour prior to the time for argument.

CHAPTER 8 – DOMESTIC PROCEEDINGS

8.013 STATEMENT OF ASSETS/LIABILITIES

In any contested dissolution of marriage, separate maintenance, annulment, or dissolution of a domestic partnership action, if there are any disputes regarding the value or disposition of items of property or liabilities, the parties may confer and jointly prepare a list of all property and liabilities the court will be asked to distribute. Each party shall indicate their opinion regarding the fair market value for each item listed and their proposed distribution of the property and liability (described individually or by groupings, as counsel may agree). At the bottom of each page there is to be a subtotal for each party based upon their estimated fair market value. A proposed form is included in the Appendix to these rules as Appendix II.

8.015 PARENTING EDUCATION PROGRAM

- (1) The following cases are subject to this rule; annulment, legal separation, or dissolution of marriage actions where the parties have a child under the age of eighteen (18) years, petition to establish custody or visitation and post-judgment litigation involving custody or visitation.
- (2) All parties to proceedings identified above, shall successfully complete the parenting program offered by the court designated providers. Parties shall register for the program within fifteen (15) days of receiving notice of this education requirement. All parties shall complete the program before trial or entry of judgment.
- (3) Notice and instructions to the petitioner of the requirement that the parties complete the education program will be provided by the Trial Court Administrator when the petition is filed. Petitioner, when serving the respondent with the petition, shall also include a copy of the Trial Court Administrator's Notice. The petitioner's return of service on the respondent shall indicate service of the notice with the summons and petition.
- (4) Each party shall pay a fee determined by the program provider to cover program costs.
- (5) Each person who successfully completes the court's program shall present a Certificate of Completion to the Judge before trial or entry of judgment.
- (6) Upon a showing of good cause, a party may request a waiver of this rule. The request must be made by motion, supported by affidavit or declaration, and filed within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Trial Court Administrator's Notice.
- (7) Court action on a petition or request for post judgment relief shall not be delayed by a party's refusal or delay in completing the program unless the non-complying party is a petitioner or the moving party. Upon a party's failure to successfully complete the education program pursuant to this rule, the assigned Judge may take appropriate action(s), including but not limited to, proceedings for contempt of court.

8.045 PRE-JUDGMENT RELIEF PURSUANT TO ORS 107.095(1)

- (1) All applications for pre-judgment relief under ORS 107.095(1) must be by motion for a show cause order and the said order must state separately each item of relief requested by the moving party. Such motions must be supported by affidavits, declarations, or other competent supporting material, but said orders may not state the requested relief by reference to the motion or a supporting affidavit or declaration. The said motion, order and supporting affidavits or declarations and materials must be served upon the opposing party and the order must have attached thereto a notice substantially in conformity with the form notice set forth in Appendix III to these rules. However, use of such notice may be dispensed with if such service is made upon an attorney known to be representing the opposing party.

27th Judicial District

Tillamook County Circuit Court – February 1, 2025

- (2) All such show cause orders shall specify a response time no less than thirty (30) days from the date of service thereof upon the opposing party and shall require the opposing party to respond by filing a response in writing together with opposing affidavits or declarations and supporting material, if any, showing why the relief requested should not be granted, and submitting by way of countermotion, any affirmative request for relief by that party. The response and countermotion, if any, shall be served upon the moving party with the aforesaid response time.
- (3) Supporting material filed under this rule must comply with the provisions of UTCR 13.190(2) and may not exceed fifteen (15) pages in length per affidavit or declaration. Any request for an award of support or an award of attorney's fees shall be accompanied by the filing of a Uniform Support Declaration in compliance with UTCR 8.040. If a request for support or an award of attorney's fees is initiated by way of countermotion, then the moving party shall file a Uniform Support Declaration in compliance with UTCR 8.040 at the time of filing the moving party's reply. The failure of a party opposing a request for support or attorney's fees to file an affidavit of financial condition may be construed as an admission that the opposing party has the resources to pay the amount requested by the moving party.
- (4) If the opposing party fails to respond to the show cause order after proper service and proof of proper service having been filed with the court and within the time prescribed or having filed a response timely, but without having filed supporting affidavits and/or declarations, the moving party may present the court with an order and/or limited judgment (if applicable) granting the relief sought.
- (5) The moving party shall have fourteen (14) days from the date of service of the response, if any, to file a reply with affidavits or declarations and supportive materials. No further pleadings will be considered. Upon receipt of a reply, or at the expiration of seventeen (17) days from the filing of the response, the court shall consider the matter ripe for decision and shall then set the matter for a hearing in ordinary course.
- (6) At the time set for hearing, the court may entertain oral argument of counsel, if any, or oral argument of the parties. The parties may not offer new evidence before the court which was not previously provided in the parties' affidavits and/or declarations. The court may inquire of the parties any issue that court deems necessary and appropriate in rendering a decision. The parties may not offer testimony from third parties at the hearing and the time for a hearing on a motion for pre-judgment relief under ORS 107.095, shall be limited to thirty (30) minutes unless continued by the court for good cause shown.
- (7) The time and date of the hearing will be set by court docketing at the convenience of the court. For good cause shown, the court may continue the time and date of hearing upon its own motion or that of a party once per side, but in any event no later than a total of fourteen (14) days from the initial hearing notice date.
- (8) The court may issue its decision on the filings of the parties without a hearing. The court may issue its decision in open court at the commencement of the hearing in open court after oral argument or issue its decision in writing at a later time.
- (9) The court may consider applications for ex parte temporary custody and/or parenting time orders pursuant to ORS 107.097(3) at 1:00 p.m. each judicial day, subject to the moving party scheduling such application with the court's Calendar Coordinator not later than 4:00 p.m. of the previous judicial day. The court may consider application for ex parte immediate temporary orders for such things as support, restraint, etc., if sufficiently supported by an affidavit or declaration or other appropriate documentation establishing a bona-fide emergency need. Such applications shall be allowed only if done in conjunction with show cause proceedings as provided herein touching upon the same issues as are contained in the temporary order so that the opposing party is provided an opportunity to respond. An application for a Temporary Protective Order of Restraint shall be in conformance with ORS 107.097(2).

8.051 POST-JUDGMENT RELIEF PURSUANT TO ORS 107.135(1)

- (1) All applications for post-judgment relief under ORS 107.135(1) must be by motion for a show cause order and the order must state separately each item of relief requested by the moving party. Such orders may not state the requested relief by reference to a supporting affidavit or declaration. Such orders shall be served pursuant to ORCP 7 along with the form of Notice set forth in Appendix IV.
- (2) All such show-cause orders shall specify a response time not less than thirty (30) days from the date of service thereof upon the opposing party. Such orders shall require the opposing party to respond by filing a response in writing together with opposing affidavits or declarations (and requesting affirmative relief, if any) and serving a copy thereof upon the moving party with the aforesaid response time. The motion, supporting affidavits or declarations and order must be served upon the opposing party and the order must have attached thereto a notice substantially in conformity with the form notice set forth in Appendix IV to these rules. However, use of such notice may be dispensed with if such service is made upon an attorney known to be representing the opposing party.
- (3) If the opposing party fails to respond to the show cause order as aforesaid, at any time following the response time, and while the opposing party is in default, the moving party may present an order granting the relief sought, provided that proper return of service for the show cause order has been filed.
- (4) If the opposing party responds to the show cause order in due course, the court shall set the matter of an initial appearance for the purposes of setting the matter for hearing.

8.052 PARENTING TIME ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

Proceedings to enforce parenting time pursuant to ORS 107.434 shall be scheduled for hearing within forty-five (45) days of filing. The court will set a single hearing at which the parties shall litigate the issue(s).

8.075 PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES

Attached as Appendix V and VI are recommended schedules for parenting time for proceedings where there are minor children. The schedule is a guideline only and may be modified based upon appropriate circumstances in individual cases.

8.081 CONFIDENTIALITY, BEST INTERESTS OF CHILDREN

12.001 MATTERS SUBJECT TO MEDIATION

(1) Mandatory Domestic Relations Custody and Parenting Mediation.

Any matter identified in ORS 107.755 or described in ORS 107.765 shall be subject to mediation. The court will not consider any contested custody or parenting time issue in a proceeding that results in a final judgment or order and the court may decline to consider any contested custody or parenting time issue in a proceeding that results in a temporary order under ORS 107.095, unless it is notified by the mediator that the matter has proceeded through mediation in accordance with these rules.

(2) Exclusion from Mandatory Mediation.

A matter may be excluded from mandatory or ordered mediation upon application by a party and upon a showing of good cause to the court with service upon the opposing party and after being given the opportunity to be heard in objection.

(3) Other Matters in Custody and Parenting Mediation.

A mediator may consider issues of property division or spousal or child support in connection with the mediation of a dispute concerning child custody or parenting time with the written approval of both parties or counsel.

(4) Domestic Relations Financial Mediation.

A mediator qualified to mediate financial issues may mediate issues including, but not limited to, property and debt division, spousal support, and child support. Domestic relations financial mediation may be, but is not required, in connection with the mediation of a dispute concerning child custody, parenting time or visitation; however, if mediation is mandatory under Rule 12.001(1), the custody and parenting issues must be resolved before addressing financial issues. If mediation is not mandatory under rule 12.001(1), the court may, on its own motion or by motion of one party, order domestic relations financial mediation. Domestic relations financial mediation is subject to SLR 12.001(2) and 12.002-12.013.

12.002 CONTROL AGREEMENTS

A domestic relations case filed in the Circuit Court remains subject to the control of that court during mediation. The court which refers a case to mediation may set in its referral order the limits of the mediator's scope of authority in the case. Any agreements of the parties reached as a result of mediation for which court enforcement may be sought must be presented to the court, and the court shall retain final authority to accept, modify or reject the agreement. In order to preserve and promote the integrity of mediation as a dispute resolution technique, the court shall consider and may include all reasonable agreements reached by the parties in formulating its order in the case.

12.003 MEDIATION PROCESS

(5) Commencement of Mediation by Stipulated Request for Mediation.

If there is a disagreement between the parents concerning custody or parenting time at any stage of a domestic relations proceeding, both parents or their attorneys may sign and file with the court a stipulated request for mediation. A mediator will be available to the parents in accordance with these rules or the parents may agree and stipulate to an independent mediator in their stipulated request for mediation. If the parties choose an independent mediator, the cost for the mediator will be paid by the parties jointly.

(6) Commencement of Mediation by Request for Mediation by OneParent.

If there is a disagreement between the parents concerning custody or parenting time at any stage for domestic relations proceeding, either parent seeking to resolve the matter may file with the court and serve upon the other parent or his/her attorney a request for mediation.

(7) Commencement of Mediation When Custody or Parenting Time Appears at Issue.

Whenever a respondent generally appears in a domestic relations suit by filing an answer such as "Respondent Appears" or the like, the respondent shall in addition state whether there is any disagreement over child custody and/or parenting time in the case or alternatively, whether child custody or parenting time is not an issue in the case.

(8) Referral by Court Mediation.

When the parties have not requested mediation but it appears that custody and/or parenting time is/are issue(s) in a proceeding that results in final judgment or order, the court shall refer the matter to mediation; and in a proceeding that results in a temporary order, the court may refer the matter to mediation.

12.004 AUTHORITY OF MEDIATORS

(9) A mediator has authority and control over the mediation process; but a mediator has no control or authority over the parties or over their decisions in the case.

(10) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, the parties' legal counsel shall not be present at mediation sessions.

(11) A mediator shall encourage disputing parties to obtain individual legal advice and individual legal review of any mediated agreement before signing any agreement.

(12) A mediator shall not act as a lawyer for either party.

12.005 MEDIATION ORIENTATION

(13) Whenever mediation is requested or ordered as in Rule 12.001(4) or Rule 12.003 or whenever any pleadings indicate that child custody or parenting time is at issue, the parties shall be ordered to appear at mediation orientation. The parents will be given an opportunity to choose a mediator from those under contract or agreement with Tillamook County at the orientation or consult with their counsel and report their choice of mediator to the court within seven (7) days. If the parties are unable to agree upon a mediator within seven (7) days, the Court will appoint a mediator pursuant to Rule 12.006(b) and notify the parties of the appointment.

(14) Mediation shall consist of an orientation session and a maximum of six hours involving the parties and the mediator. Additional time may be provided at the parties' expense.

(15) Once assigned to mediation, the parties are required to attend the scheduled orientation session, unless by 5:00 p.m. the day of orientation, the parties through their attorneys or personally, request in writing, signed by both parties, or their attorneys, excuse from attendance due to settlement or unforeseen emergency. If excused, the parties are required to attend the next mediation orientation unless the court has received a signed, Stipulated Order or Judgment by 5:00 p.m. of that day.

12.006 ASSIGNMENT OF MEDIATOR

(16) The parties may select a mediator of their own choosing; however, if the mediator is not on the list of mediators approved by the court, the expense of the mediator shall be the responsibility of the parties.

(17) Court Appointed Mediator – In the absence of a mediator selected by the parties, the mediation clerk shall select at least three individuals from the court's panel of mediators and shall send their names to legal counsel for the parties, or to a party directly if not represented, with a request that each party strike one name and notify the court within five (5) judicial days. The mediation clerk, under direction of the court, shall select as mediator one of the three individuals about whom no timely objection was made. For good cause shown, a party may object to more than one name. In the event there is a good cause objection to all of the individual's names, the court will appoint a mediator from the list of court-approved mediators.

12.007 SCHEDULING OF MEDIATION SESSIONS

(18) Upon receipt of a mediation assignment, a mediator shall immediately notify the parties of a reasonable date and time for the initial mediation session which shall occur in the mediator's office, unless otherwise agreed upon between the mediator and the parties. The initial mediation session should occur within fourteen (14) days of the mediator's receipt of first notice of assignment.

(19) Mediation shall be completed in a prompt manner and so as to not unduly delay the court and in no event later than any deadline date ordered by the assigned trial judge.

12.008 MEDIATION COMPLETION

It is the responsibility of the parties and their attorneys to see that mediation is completed within such time as to not delay the trial of the case. Failure to do so may result in dismissal of the case or postponement under such conditions as the court may require.

12.009 UNSUCCESSFUL MEDIATION

The mediator may notify the court at any time following the initial mediation sessions involving parties and the mediator that mediation has been unsuccessful in which case the proceeding will be scheduled for hearing in the same course and with the same priority as if there had been no mediation. The mediator may determine that the mediation has been unsuccessful if the parents are unable to resolve the custody or parenting time controversy, if one or both parents are unwilling to participate in mediation, if the mediator determines that either parent is using the mediation process in bad faith for the delay of resolution of other issues, or if the parties were ordered to mediation pursuant to Rule 12.001(4) and are unable to resolve the financial controversy.

12.011 TEMPORARY CUSTODY AND PARENTING TIME ORDERS

At any point during the mediation the court may approve a temporary custody and parenting time order reflecting the parent's agreement as to the issues.

12.012 TEMPORARY SUPPORT

If the parents cannot agree on the amount of temporary support to be paid by one to the other and they are also in dispute as to custody and/or parenting time, the mediator may assist upon the request of the parents and the consent of the mediator in resolving the support issue as well.

12.101 CUSTODY AND PARENTING TIME MEDIATION COMMISSION

A Mediation Commission is established. The Presiding Judge shall appoint the commission members who shall serve at the Presiding Judge's pleasure.

12.102 Function.

The commission's function shall be to supervise the mediation program to render advisory opinions at the request of a judge, including advisory opinions regarding mediator applicants, and to recommend rule changes to the judges.

12.103 Composition.

The composition of the commission shall be two judges and two attorneys whose practices include domestic relations work. If the commission meets to render a recommendation regarding an application to be a domestic relations financial mediator, the commission shall include at least one domestic relations financial mediator. Ex-officio members shall be the Presiding Judge of the Twenty-Seventh Judicial District and a court mediation coordinator. The Presiding Judge may appoint additional members.

12.104 Quorum.

Two members of the commission including at least one attorney and one judge shall constitute a quorum.

12.171 MEDIATOR QUALIFICATIONS

Note: The privacy of records and confidentiality of communications in mediation are governed by ORS 107.785.

12.181 MEDIATION IN PARENTING TIME ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

12.182 All parenting time enforcement proceedings shall be subject to an expedited mandatory mediation requirement. When an enforcement proceeding is filed, the mediation clerk shall select a mediator from the court's panel of mediators and notify the parties of this selection.

Preference shall be given to the mediator, if any, who was appointed by the court in the most recent proceeding. The mediation clerk shall immediately notify the mediator of this appointment and the date of the scheduled enforcement hearing. Participation in mediation orientation and the parenting class are not required.

- 12.183 Exclusion from mediation will only be allowed in unusual circumstances. A party requesting to be excluded from mediation shall submit a written request to the court to be determined in a summary manner.
- 12.184 The moving party shall contact the mediator no later than two business days after filing. The non-moving party shall contact the mediator no later than two business days after service. The parties and the mediator shall use their best efforts to mediate the matter at issue before the scheduled hearing.
- 12.185 The mediator shall notify the court no later than seven (7) days prior to the scheduled hearing of the results of the mediation process.
- 12.186 If a party does not participate in the mediation process, the court may decline to consider or continue the enforcement proceeding beyond the statutory timelines. The court may also consider a party's failure to participate in mediation when determining the appropriate sanctions to be imposed if a violation is found.

CHAPTER 13 – ARBITRATION

13.041 REFERRAL TO ARBITRATION: MOTIONS

- (1) A case subject to arbitration will be assigned to arbitration when all parties have appeared.
- (2) In the event a motion to file an amended pleading is allowed by the arbitrator which causes the case to be no longer subject to mandatory arbitration, the party filing such a pleading must so notify the Arbitration Clerk. Unless the parties stipulate otherwise, the clerk will then remove the case from arbitration.

13.161 SCHEDULING OF HEARING

- (1) Except for good cause shown, the hearing must be scheduled to take place no later than ninety (90) days from the date of assignment of the case to the arbitrator. A hearing may be postponed or continued only with permission of the arbitrator, but it must still take place within the ninety (90) day period. The arbitrator must give notice of any continuance to the Trial Court Administrator.
- (2) Continuances and postponements shall not be granted except in the more unusual circumstances. Approximately three (3) months are allocated for the arbitration process. The arbitrator is given the power to enforce the rules and will be required to maintain the schedule.

CHAPTER 16

16.001 VIOLATIONS BUREAU

By Presiding Judge Order the court has established a Violations Bureau for all allowable violations in alignment with Chief Justice Order. The Tillamook Violations Bureau adopts the fine reduction schedule as published by the Chief Justice. CHAPTER 8 – APPENDIX V

GUIDELINES FOR PARENTING TIME WITH MINOR CHILDREN IN DOMESTIC RELATIONS CASES (0 – 175 MILES)

(1) PARENTS CAN AGREE TO A DIFFERENT PLAN

The parties can arrange any parenting time plan they desire or may vary portions of this plan but only if both parents agree. If the parents do not agree to a different plan, the non-residential parent will have parenting time set forth in this plan unless otherwise ordered by the court. The parents are encouraged to be flexible and work together to agree to changes to this plan as their children get older or family circumstances change. Agreed upon changes will be temporary and will not be enforced by the court unless the change is written down, dated, signed by both parents under penalty of perjury or made under oath or affirmation, and submitted to the court to make the stipulation a part of the court’s file.

(2) DEFINITIONS

- (a) Weekends: A weekend is defined as commencing with the release of the children from school or 3:00 p.m. if school is not in session on Friday and ending at 6:00 p.m. on the following Sunday. The first weekend of the month is defined as the first weekend that has both a Saturday and a Sunday within the same calendar month. The fifth weekend will be the fifth weekend of any calendar month in which both Saturday and Sunday fall within the same calendar month. The fifth weekend occurs two (2) to four (4) times per year.
- (b) Vacation and Holiday Periods: These are the dates set by the school the child attends or by the public-school district in which the child resides if the child is not attending school or is home-schooled.
- (c) Conflicts: If routine parenting time conflicts with holiday and vacation parenting time, then the parent entitled to holiday and vacation time will have the child(ren). Holiday and vacation parenting time will not work to change the routine schedule nor will it “restart” the routine parenting time schedule.

(3) ROUTINE SCHEDULE

This schedule is to be utilized so long as the non-residential parent lives within 175 miles of the children.

Parents are, however, encouraged to be supportive of the child(ren)'s participation in all extra-curricular activities.

(g) When There Are Children in Different Age Groups

If there are children who would have different parenting time schedules under this parenting plan because they are different ages, the non-residential parent will have parenting time with all children together under the schedule that applies to the oldest child, unless a child is six (6) months of age or younger. In that case, the youngest child must go by the designated age-appropriate times.

(h) Make-up of Missed Parenting Time

- (1) Only substantial medical reasons of the child(ren) will be considered sufficient for postponement of scheduled parenting time. If the child(ren) is/are seriously ill and unable to visit with the non-residential parent, a make-up parenting time must be scheduled within twenty (20) days.
- (2) If the non-residential parent is unable to exercise his/her parenting time for any reason, he/she is not entitled to any make-up time unless mutually agreed by both parents.

(a) Day-to-Day Decisions

Unless otherwise ordered or restricted by the court, parents are considered fit to care for their child(ren) and make decisions regarding the day-to-day aspects of parenting while the child(ren) are in their care.

(i) Communication

In addition to parenting time, both parents and the child(ren) have the right to communicate by telephone, in writing, email, text message or by webcam video chat session (if available) during reasonable hours without interference or monitoring by the other parent. Reasonable hours are 8:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m., unless other arrangements are made. Telephone calls and webcam video chat sessions shall be no more than one per day and for no more than twenty (20) minutes. Parents with very young children shall facilitate the calls, messaging, and webcam video chat sessions.

(7) PARENT – CHILD COMMUNICATION

Both parents have the right to written, e-mail and telephone contact with the child(ren) without interference or monitoring during reasonable hours. Reasonable hours are 9:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. in the child(ren)'s time zone, unless other arrangements are made. Telephone calls shall be no more than one per day.

(8) AFFECTION AND RESPECT

Both parents shall be restrained and enjoined from making derogatory comments about the other parent or in any way diminishing the love, respect and affection that the child(ren) has/have for the other parent nor shall they allow others to do so in the presence of the child(ren).

(9) PARENTAL NOTIFICATION (ORS 107.164)

Both parents have a continuing responsibility to promptly provide their addresses and contact telephone numbers to the other parent and to immediately notify the other parent of any emergency circumstances or substantial changes in the health of the child(ren). The residential parent shall also provide an address and contact number for the minor child(ren)'s school, physician and therapist.

(10) PARENT'S RELOCATION

Parents must provide each other and the Court with written notice at least thirty (30) days prior to any change of residence.

(11) FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS PLAN

If a parent fails to comply with a provision of this plan, the other parent's obligations under the plan are not affected. The Tillamook County Circuit Court has information about the expedited parenting time enforcement procedure.
